Make Your Mark Day

Last Thursday the school held a 'Make your mark' day. This was a great success and all the children enjoyed taking part and working with other children and teachers.

Thank you to everyone who came to the assembly at the end of the day.

Ancient Greek Day

On Friday 14th February Howard class are holding an 'Ancient Greek Day'.

The children can come in dressed as Ancient Greeks, they will try some Greek food and share some of the information they have found out about Ancient Greece during this half term.

Handwriting Workshops

We will be holding handwriting workshops for parents / carers on both of our parent consultation evenings next half term.

Parking Reminder!

Please do not park your car on any of the yellow zigzags around the school site, even for a short period of time.

We have asked the local Police Community Support Officers to keep a check on this.

Thank you.

Congratulations to Miss Banks for achieving her NASENCO Award and her certificate in vulnerable learners which is master's level, it helps with work in Special Educational Needs. Well done!

Important Events for this term are on the back of this newsletter.
